HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ALL MEMBERS BORN IN THE MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

The two zodiac signs associated with the month of September are Virgo and Libra. People born from September 1st to September 22nd are members of the Virgo sign. As one of the zodiac's most understanding and caring signs, a Virgo can be easily spotted by their innate compassion. For those born from September 23rd to September 30th, they are members of the Libra sign. Those born under the Libra sign can be identified by their organised and harmony-driven personalities.

Famous People

Salma Hayek. Keanu Reeves, Michael Keaton, Charlie Sheen. Jenny Johnston,

A blonde and a redhead have a ranch. They have just lost their bull. The women need to buy another, but only have $500. The redhead tells the blonde, "I will go to the market and see if I can find one for under that amount. If I can, I will send you a telegram." She goes to the market and finds one for $499. Having only one dollar left, she goes to the telegraph office and finds out that it costs one dollar per word. She is stumped on how to tell the blonde to bring the truck and trailer. Finally, she tells the telegraph operator to send the word "comfortable." Skeptical, the operator asks, "How will she know to come with the trailer from just that word?" The redhead replies, "She's a blonde so she reads slow: 'Come for ta bull.'"

While reading an article last night about fathers and their sons, memories came flooding back to the time I took me son out for his first pint.

Off we went to our local pub only two blocks from the cottage.

I got him a Guinness. He didn't like it, so I drank it.

Then I got him a Kilkenny's, he didn't like that either, so I drank it. Finally, I thought he might like some Harp Lager? He didn't. I drank it.

I thought maybe he'd like whisky better than beer, so we tried a Jameson's; nope!

In desperation, I had him try that rare Redbreast, Ireland's finest whisky. He wouldn't even smell it.

What could I do but drink it!

By the time I realised he just didn't like to drink,

I was so drunk I could hardly push his stroller back home!!!

An old Irish farmer's dog goes missing and he's inconsolable. His wife says: "Why don't you put an ad in the paper?" The farmer does. Two weeks later the dog is still missing.

"What did you put in the paper?" his wife asks.

"Here boy" he replies.

Paddy's in jail. The Guard looks in his cell and sees him hanging by his feet.

"What the hell you doing?" he asks.

"Hanging myself", Paddy replies.

"It should be around your neck", says the Guard.

"I know", says Paddy, "but I couldn't breathe."

Introducing our Member of the year 2020

Carol Pearce.

Carol apart from being a very talented artist is also a wordsmith, that enjoys many of her articles being published in Newspapers for example a recent article

In recent years a politically incorrect, but hilariously funny TV series "Fawlty Towers" coined a phrase, which seems to be remembered by everyone - that is "Don't mention the War." The number of times this gets chorused in my family alone, whenever a forbidden subject arises, causes great mirth, and often diffuses a tense situation! It occurred to me, after months of depressing news and discussions on TV and all media, that perhaps in years to come "Covid" will become the "Don't Mention the War" catchcry to describe this terrible year for the world. In the meantime, is it possible for us to have ONE day, now and then, when "Covid" does become a dirty word, and is removed from the news - leaving fun, normality, even a bit of joy to take over from the gloom and despondency this word creates. We are all grateful to the health workers, the dedicated politicians, doctors, and community workers - as well as the media, who have guided us through an unforgettable disaster - still to be overcome. But, surely one Covid "Don't Mention the War" Day could be spared, so that we can all pretend that life IS normal - just for today.
