WHAT DOES A CASTING DIRECTOR DO:

Casting Directors organise and conduct interviews and auditions for each part, and are also in charge of offering each actor an appropriate fee to appear in the film, as well as drawing up and negotiating the terms and conditions of contracts with agents, once casting is complete. Casting Directors need a vast knowledge of a huge range of actors, and an extensive understanding of their abilities, as well as a thorough appreciation of changing talent trends within the film industry. This requires a strong instinct for acting talent, and great dedication and commitment. A deep passion for the craft of acting is essential. Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are vital in order to liaise with a range of people, including other production staff, talent agents, and the actors themselves. Come and hear our speaker Nancy Hansch speak about her time in this role and the real gossip on some of your favourite actors. Nancy is a stimulating and very funny presenter, don't miss out on hearing all the gossip. We have included 2 photos of Nancy's favourite actors

Harrington Glen Estate

Dear members and friends,

I would like to start by expressing my sincere thanks to all of you for the support I have received in the past year and for the contributions that you have made in every activity and event we organised. A special gratitude goes to the committee for their commitment and great work as the operational leaders. We can all be proud of making a positive contribution to the success of Broadbeach branch in one way or another.

As we approach the holiday season and prepare for some time of reflection and renew our ties to our families and friends, I would like, on behalf our committee to say simply but sincerely "Thank You" for giving me the opportunity to work with you this year and to extend our wishes for a very Merry Christmas and all the best in the New Year. May 2020 be our best year yet!

Once There Was a Snowman

~ Anon

Once there was a snowman,
Who stood outside the door,
He wished that he could come inside,
And run about the floor.
He wished that he could warm himself,
Beside the fire, so red,
He wished that he could climb
Upon the big white bed.
So he called to the North Wind,
“Come and help me, pray,
For I’m completely frozen,
Standing here all day.”
So the North Wind came along,
And blew him in the door,
And now there nothing left,
But a puddle on the floor!
