Jokes & Quote:

Eating in the 50's

For those of you who are old enough to remember, enjoy.

For the rest treat this as a history lesson!

Very surprising how time and memory has taken its toll.

Have things really changed this much in our time?

EATING THE FIFTIES CONSIDER THAT:

Brown bread was something only poor people ate.

Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.

Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green.

Cubed sugar was regarded as posh

Eating raw fish was called poverty not sushi

Only Heinz made beans.

Pasta had not been invented

Curry was a surname

A take away was a mathematical problems,

A pizza was something to do with a leaning tower.

Bananas and oranges only appeared at Christmas time.

All crisp were plain; the only choice was whether to put salt or not

Rice was milk pudding, and never part of our dinner

Condiments consisted of salt, pepper, vinegar and brown sauce.

Frozen food was called ice cream.

Prunes was medicinal.

None of us had hear of Yogurt

Healthy food consisted of anything edible.

People who didn't peel potatoes were regarded as lazy.

Indian restaurants were found only in India.

Seaweed was not recognized as a food.

Pineapples came in chunks in a tin; we only saw a photo of a real one

"Kebab" was not even a word, never mind a food.

Water came out of a tap, suggesting bottling it, and charging for it, would have become a laughing stock.

The one thing that we never ever had on our table was elbows!

Before I've had my Coffee, I'm like three of the seven drawfs...

Sleepy, Grumpy
and Dopey

Last Month's Bus Trip River Café, Tewantin (Xmas in July)

A great day was had by all. It was a fun day filled with lots of laughs and great food. The River Café certainly put on a very festive day and I am sure it was enjoyed by everyone. Thanks again Allan & Jan for organising it.
