ESK BUSH BASHERS. Tuesday 22nd July. Morning tea will be at Cormorant Bay Reserve before we proceed to Esk. The Bush Bashers always put on some lively entertainment and you are encouraged to join in. A light lunch of sandwiches and cake, tea/coffee is included during the visit. If you have been before or not please come as you will enjoy the day. At the July meeting please advise if you have any dietary issues. The fare is $60 for NSA members and $70 for others. We need 50 but lets fill the coach this time.

MACLEAY ISLAND TOUR Under grey skies 49 members joined this event. Following a quick m/t and travel to Redland Bay we boarded the 10.30 ferry. Our hired school bus was waiting and Sean the driver gave a detailed tour of the island before taking us to the Bowls Club. The venue, food and service was good. Unfortunately due to the high steps of the bus some of us had difficulty alighting and boarding. Peter wisely chose a different and fast route on our return to Carina.

MACKSVILLE SIX DAY TOUR 7th—12th Sept. This a reminder for those members who expressed interest in this tour last November, that we are about to proceed with formal bookings and payment of deposits towards the $1,599 cost. Please see Noel West today or phone him asap if you are still interested.

WELFARE We are wishing a speedy recovery for Jan Field who broke her hip in a fall, Kay Wright for her leg injury, Robert Stanton for his back problem, and David Connell following his shoulder surgery. Robert Clark has been admitted into care accommodation since his recent fall. He is at Regis Holland Park, 21 Birdwood Road, Holland Park.

25th ANNIVERSARY The committee is still seeking assistance from members who may know of any organisations that possibly could provide some pecuniary sponsorship for this important event.

COMMITTEE ELECTIONS At the July meeting forms will be available to nominate members to become the new committee at the AGM in August.
