

Everald Compton Community Champion Medal Nomination

The Everald Compton Community Champion Medal is a distinguished accolade established to acknowledge the unsung heroes among older Australians.

The medal honours National Seniors Australia's Founding Father's long standing and outstanding contribution to the Australian community while celebrating everyday champions who are 'turning grey into gold' with grassroot experiences and selfless contributions that make a significant difference in their communities.

It also reflects NSA's values of fairness, excellence, and respect exemplified by Everald's own experience and achievements.

Please fill in the form to nominate a senior Australian for the Everald Compton Community Champion Medal. Once completed, post your form to the below address:

National Seniors Australia
19a 160 Ann St Brisbane QLD 4001
