MACKSVILLE TOUR REPORT Twenty members headed south on the Sunday to settle into the motel. Over the next four days they travelled to Woolgoolga, Dorrigo, Port Macquarie, Wauchope, Bowraville, South West Rocks, Kempsey and other points in between. Members tried boomerang painting, visited a skywalk, Dangar Falls, railway museum, fudge factory, winery, brewery, beautiful beaches, had a river cruise and enjoyed a lunch provided by the CWA. The motel staff made each evening meal a memorable occasion by decorating the dining area in different themes and involving members in the musical entertainment. The Elvis impersonation singing by Albert Budworth and Graham Owens was truly memorable as was the plentiful supply of food. Too soon it was Friday and the journey back home. All agreed it was an excellent tour.

FEBRUARY TOUR

Further details and bookings available next month. Keep Tuesday 17th free in your diary for this tour.

MULTI-DAY TOUR FOR 2026 With a similar arrangement as the above tour, planning has commenced for a five day tour based at Stanthorpe in September. More details available in due course.

WELFARE

Coral Tilley recently broke her wrist so we wish for a quick recovery for her. We are thinking too of Esther Baker and Pam McCartney whose recovery of their recent health issues is not progressing as quickly as they had hoped.
