FROM THE FRONT DESK

Welcome to winter, we should have worked out that it would be this cold after so much rain, but it has certainly been a shock.

Our Transicare fun on the run day out was in dull and overcast conditions, and I must say, a little disappointing Op-Shopping: I had hoped to purchase some “Christmas in July” attire but missed the boat.

Our trip to Ballina is all booked, and I’m sorry to say, no refunds as of now. As most business are doing it tough accommodation is paid when booking, so keep fit. While we are on the subject, I assume you know the dress code for Thursday evening, 24th July, is Christmassy.

There is a list at the back of the room for a Transicare day trip to Jacobs Well on 12th August, cost is $20.00 – cash only, which covers your morning tea and “seniors menu” lunch. Please check your name (put a tick if still coming) and cross it off if no longer attending. Also note that this is after the expected closure of our club.

There is also a list for the final Picnic in the Park – kindly check you name – same deal as above, tick or cross off.

Westside HQ is hosting a “Christmas in July” function on 26th with dinner and a music show featuring Toby Tyler (very popular with line dancers). Just for your information and for you to book yourself if interested. A few flyers at the bookings table.

Our speaker today is from My Aged Care and as everything appears to be changing as of July, listen carefully. If you would like to talk 1 on 1 with the speaker: please see Anne Munro for a ticket number so as not to swamp the speaker.
