Newsletter – October 18th 2021

Good morning members. Many thanks to Jeanette & Peter for opening their home for our Annual Barbecue last week. Rain, Storm and predicted hail - not suitable to be held at a park. So at 7am the BBQ was transferred to their home. 34 happy members enjoyed their hospitality. Thank you. As I have had Christmas decorations donated, it was decided to have a stall at our November Social meeting. Several ladies have agreed to make edible goodies, etc for the stalk. If you would like to help or buy 18th November is the date. You may find a homemade gift instead of going to a shopping centre. Our Annual Christmas Lunch is on 9th December. If you have any large baskets that we can use to make hampers for lucky door prizes please bring them along on 18th November. We are also asking for non-perishable goodies to help fill the hampers. Stay safe and healthy. JENNY.

October Birthdays: Patricia Felsch, Merle Hellion, Norma Jenkins, Beth Leist, Margaret Monroe, Bette Reeves, Marjorie Wilkes, Lloyd Young.

42 Members attended the September Social Meeting. There were 10 Apologies. Guest Speakers were Jodie Murray, Acting Senior Sergeant, Acting Officer in Charge, North Brisbane District Crime Prevention Centre and Elaine, volunteer at Boondall Police.

NSA have advised you can pay/or renew your membership fees direct to NSA or if you prefer you can still pay your fees at our Meetings (before meeting if possible please). Your NSA pre-paid envelopes would be greatly appreciated to help with postage costs.
